H1 2016 Operational Highlights

- Increase in new customers a record for six months and substantially ahead of expectations
  - Temporarily suppressed EBITDA margins and ARPU due to extra costs being incurred prior to revenues
  - Additional customers expected to benefit revenues and margins going forward
  - Excluding extra acquisition costs for new customers in excess of market expectations, EBITDA margins were over 50%

- Plus500 is the second largest CFD provider in the UK*: market share increased as a result of improved brand and product awareness

- Product innovation continued: mobile and tablet adoption have continued to grow and now represent 68% of all customers

- Dividend policy maintained at 60% pay-out ratio with payment of special dividends at the end of the year if appropriate and flexibility to buyback shares

- Transformed regulation and compliance over the last year – appointment of Penny Judd, ex Nomura and UBS Head of Compliance as NED

- Positive impact of EU Referendum with record daily signups and new customers

Growing brand awareness increases efficiency

New Customers acquisition by marketing channel

- Increased brand recognition
Marketing costs impact

Marketing costs are being expensed immediately when customers are onboarded. Revenues start to be generated with a lag of approx. 3 months.

Financial news leads to increased market volatility → Marketing and other costs increase → Number of new customers increases → EBITDA margin decrease → Revenues increase → EBITDA margin increases

3 months gap
Marketing infrastructure: Online is key

Online advertising
The use of our proprietary automated marketing platform ensures that spending is efficient with a demonstrable return on investment.

- Focus is online

Regulation framework

Client Take-On

- FCA / CySEC / ASIC / ISA rules set out client take-on requirements
- Client money treated the same across jurisdictions and kept in segregated accounts.
- Customers must self-certify their understanding of the risks
- Marketing carries appropriate risk warnings
- Risk-based approach in line with regulations

- All EEA customers facilitated via “passporting mechanism”
- Periodic FCA, CySEC, ASIC and ISA visits, ongoing dialogue maintained
- Regulatory burden increasing, although this increases barriers to entry
Commitment to regulatory, compliance and risk best practice

- Continuing focus on, and investment in, best practice
- Global compliance team consists of c.150 permanent staff
- UK team led by local UK based staff with significant experience and relationship skills
- Enhanced day to day relationship with the FCA
- No current regulatory restrictions in any of the Group’s regulated markets

Board and governance changes:
  - Appointment of Penelope Judd – ex UKLA and UBS and Nomura Head of Compliance
  - Initiation of new Risk and Compliance committee and a Disclosure committee
Recent industry developments

Regulators

❖ “Dear CEO” letter (FCA) – Plus500UK was not included in the sample of ten firms that were reviewed in the “Dear CEO” letter from the FCA

❖ ESMA Q&A document (EU) – to promote common supervisory approaches and practices in the application of MiFID

❖ AMF (France) – issue new marketing guidelines

❖ FSMA (Belgium) – issue new regulation for leveraged products

Market volatility

❖ Brexit – no adverse impact, record spreads were recorded, double a typical trading day’s activity, and most new customers (1,600) achieved in a single day
Trading platform integrated with risk management

Market Risk
Spread of customers acts as a natural risk-mitigation:
- No dominant customers

Real-time monitoring of exposure limits by:
- Individual clients
- Individual instruments
- Total Company exposure
- Significant degree of automation

When limits are reached, no further trades accepted

Hedging would be undertaken if market movement breach the Group’s risk appetite limits

Monitoring of instrument level correlations and volatility

Credit Risk
Automated real-time close-out policy to minimise unfunded customer losses

Surplus Capital
Plus500 continues to maintain significant reserves
